Year 1 & 2 Student Feedback about Family Practice, Data from 2018-19 and 2020-21 Foundations of Medical Practice Course Evaluations

"My family practice office visits were always the best part of my week. Being able to be in person, interact with real patients and learn from a practicing physician with real cases was amazing. I was able to ask questions and solidify and apply what I had learned in lecture."

- Year 1 student

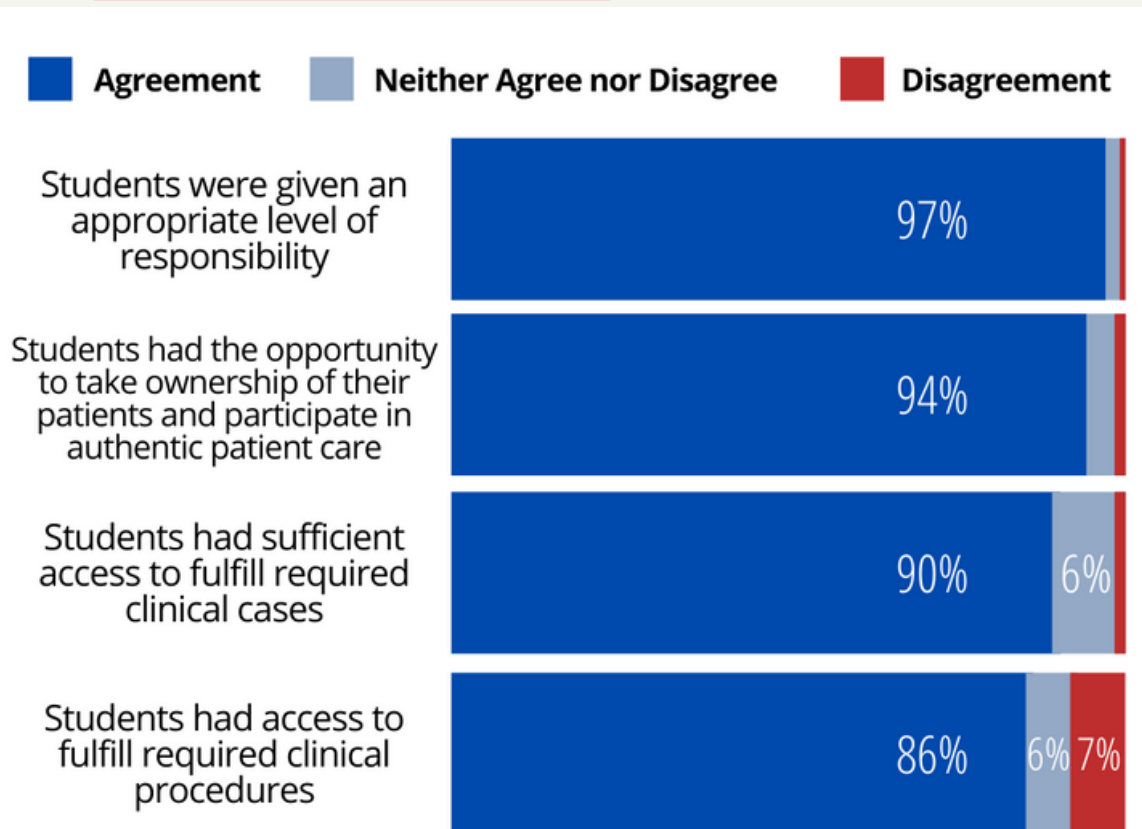

"This rotation is overall an amazing opportunity to see a new part of BC and how medicine is practiced in isolated and lower resource areas. My placement location allowed me to learn about the interdisciplinary nature of rural medicine and the role of/challenges with rural transfers."

MY PRECEPTOR PROVIDED A TREMENDOUS LEARNING ENVIRONMENT FOR ME AND HAD FULL CONFIDENCE IN ME TO SPEAK WITH/VISIT PATIENTS BY MYSELF."

"I THOUGHT MY FAMILY PRACTICE OFFICE VISITS WERE AN INVALUABLE EXPERIENCE AND MY FAVOURITE PART OF MEDICAL SCHOOL SO FAR. IT GAVE ME THE OPPORTUNITY TO SEE WHAT A CAREER IN FAMILY MEDICINE IS LIKE, PRACTICE PHYSICAL EXAMS AND PROCEDURES, AND LEARN ABOUT OTHER AREAS OF MEDICINE SUCH AS MAID AND HELPING SUPPORT THE LGBTQ2S+ COMMUNITY."

"EACH OF THE PHYSICIANS WERE VERY EFFECTIVE AND APPROACHABLE TEACHERS WITH A WIDE VARIETY OF SKILL SETS AND LIFE EXPERIENCES. THEY INQUIRED ABOUT MY LEARNING GOALS, GAVE ME AMPLE OPPORTUNITY TO SEE PATIENTS ON MY OWN, DEVELOP MANAGEMENT PLANS, PROVIDE CARE AND DEVELOP MY PROCEDURAL SKILLS, AND PROBE MY KNOWLEDGE AND DISCUSS DIFFERENT ASPECTS OF PATIENT CARE AND THE NUANCES OF FAMILY PRACTICE. THE QUALITY OF TEACHING I RECEIVED AT THIS PLACEMENT WAS UNPARALLELED TO THAT WHICH I HAVE RECEIVED AT OTHER PLACEMENTS. I AM SO GRATEFUL FOR THE CARE, APPROACHABILITY, KNOWLEDGE, AND EXPERIENCE OF THIS TEAM AND SINCERELY BELIEVE THAT THEY WERE INVALUABLE TO MY DEVELOPMENT AS A PHYSICIAN."

"WORKING DIRECTLY WITH A CARING PRECEPTOR FOR SUCH A LONG PERIOD INCREASED MY CONFIDENCE IMMENSELY. I FEEL THAT I'VE TURNED THE CORNER IN TERMS OF BECOMING A PHYSICIAN AFTER THIS ROTATION."
